

ANNUAL TOWN REPORT 1987 HAMPDEN, MASSACHUSETTS

Fourth Annual TOWN REPORT Cover Contest...sponsored by the Hampden Arts Lottery Council

Open to all students in the Art Department, Thornton Burgess School, under the direction of Ms. Susan Haller, Art Instructor, Hampden Schools.

THEME: What Rights Do We Enjoy in the Town of Hampden Under the U.S. Constitution?

Once again I have enjoyed the distinct pleasure of interviewing the eight finalists in this contest. The young people give such consideration and thought before answering questions and each individual personality is most interesting. It was unusual, this year, that all of the winners were boys. Perhaps the "artistic" young ladies are becoming more "crafty"!

This year's contest was based on our constitutional rights and so, to paraphrase the Preamble: We, the people of the Town of Hampden, in order to form a more perfect evaluation of what our students are accomplishing in the Arts Department of our schools, need only study these drawings and the comments of each artist involved as they appear on the following pages of this 1987 TOWN REPORT to come to a satisfying conclusion.

Ginger Green

FIRST PRIZE... Colin Schmitt, Grade 6, Age 11

Son of Lynn and Charles Schmitt

(Cover Design)

Colin submitted two drawing and each was deemed worthy of first place. They were combined and made into the TOWN REPORT cover. Colin said he likes to draw buildings although not in exact detail and he presented his ideas to portray the right of free assembly and the right to vote.

Although he likes buildings, he would not want to live in a city. He enjoys the fact that his home is surrounded by woods. He says he once lived on Main Street in Hampden and even that was not country enough. Colin likes to ski, play basketball and draw. He presents a positive and assured manner and might one day want to be an architect, follwing his fathers's profession.

SECOND PRIZE - John Davenport - Grade 7, Age 12 Son of Sophie and Donald Davenport

John speaks in an earnest and composed manner and noted that this is the first year he entered the contest. He said that he offered the concept of the two churches in Hampden because the Constitution assures the freedom to go to the church of one's choice. However, he feels that freedom of speech and the right to vote are also important.

John likes to go into the woods with his friends and build bridges with logs. He draws a lot and likes to skate board. Someday he would like to be a baseball player although if that didn't work out his second choice would be the Coast Guard as he likes the ocean and ships.

THIRD PRIZE - Justin Schofield - Grade 5, Age 10 Son of Barbara and Earl Schofield

This is Justin's first time in the Arts Contest although his brother was a two-time winner. Justin sings in the chorus and likes to go to the library a lot. Looking at the stage and podium in the Town Hall made him decide to depict freedom of speech because this is a right the people use at Town Meeting.

Justin likes Hampden a lot, particularly all of the hills to go sliding. He is a thoughtful and articulate person and enjoys writing, especially science papers about fish and biological subjects (not things that are made up). Someday he would like to be an archeologist...a person "who digs up bones and stuff". I think he just might achieve that goal.

HONORABLE MENTION - Scott MacKenzle - Grade 6, Age 12

Son of Barbara and Neil MacKenzie

Scott chose to draw the Hampden voting area, not so much because he felt that it was the most important part of the Constitution but because it assures the right to select who we want to lead our local governments and our country.

He feels Hampden is a very relaxed place in which to live with freedom to roam around. This is a very enthusiastic and personable young fellow who is extremely interested in the theater. He writes TV productions and plays, for arnusement, and then tapes them on video camera. He would like someday to use his creativity somewhere in the theater...performing, writing, producing, building scenes...anything as long as it is in this direction.

HONORABLE MENTION - Antoine Durand - Grade 8, Age 14

Son of Joan and Jacques Durand

Antoine chose to draw the Soldiers' Monument on the Village Green because it represents the men who fought for this country and its constitutional rights. He included the gazebo on the Thornton Burgess School property because we also have "educational rights."

He likes Hampden, particularly sports and recreation. Indoor soccer is his "thing". He also likes to visit the malls with his friends, to shop and meet people and play video games. Antoine seems very energetic and really doesn't know what he would some day like to do...a perfectly understandable reasoning at age 14!

HONORABLE MENTION - Seth Hedlund - Grade 8, Age 13

Son of Ellen and Robert Hedlund

This is the second time that Seth has been a finalist in the TOWN REPORT Cover Contest and this year he submitted four drawings for consideration. In the one that was chosen he had in mind the scroll of the Constitution and emphasized many of the rights: freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly, the right to vote, freedom of religion...it's all there. Seth says he tried to show the ways that we have, in our town, to deal with these rights.

Seth enjoys the Hampden schools, his friends, the whole town for itself. He likes to ski, swim, draw and read. He comes across as very cohesive in thought and definite in his ideas. He likes the military, particularly the Navy, and would someday like to make the Navy a career.

HONORABLE MENTION - Paul DeVries - Grade 8, Age 13 Son of Linda and Gerrit DeVries

Paul, a second-year winner, is a quiet, relaxed type of person and his winning drawing seems to bear this impression out. He likes the outdoors and his sketch of a deer expresses his feeling that freedom for all should include nature because deer and wildlife should not be hunted down.

He enjoys the ability to walk around the country in Hampden and to fish in the right season. He likes to draw, mostly animals and wildlife and cannot say, yet, what he might do in the future.

HONORABLE MENTION - Paul Root - Grade 5, Age 10

Son of Eileen and Gerald Root

Paul's drawing shows the people of three different nations and he decided on this because when people come to America they are guaranteed all of the freedoms under the Constitution and in their native countries this might not be the case.

He likes the clean water in Hampden; he definitely doesn't like city water or crowds. He enjoys a lot of space in which to do things. In addition to drawing, Paul plays football and likes all sports. He is a "guard" in basketball now and is going to play soccer, too. This is a forthright, open type of boy and frankly says that he hasn't "thought too much" about what he might want to do in the future.
